BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Submits for orders a remission statement in favour of Namasmita fonda of Bannur, as the man purchased the shops for Rs 742 per month and failed to ~~make~~ execute the necessary agreements. The shops were resold for Rs 302 per month. His property was resold for Rs 302. So the balance of Rs 5215-12-0 is reported to be irrecoverable.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Excise Commr says that the balance of the amount viz Rs 5215-12-0 due by the licensee of certain toddy shops for the D. Narsipur Mk for the year 1899-1900 is irrecoverable and so ^{seems to} recommend and 302 when the shops were needed. I have gone through the miscellaneous papers in the file and find nothing very special or noteworthy beyond what has been stated by the Excise Comr in his letter V.O. 9084/865 dated the 4th June 1904. Further there is no possible means of recovering the amount of rental due. In these circumstances the remission recommended by the Excise Comr may be sanctioned. Draft made.
